Hello Friends!

How nice that spring is finally here. Time to throw off those old heavy woolens and slip into something cool and diaphanous, maybe in a mint green, and enjoy the balmy breezes. Spring is a time for rebirth and new romance. It's the perfect time to break an old bad habit and start a new good one.

In my life, I'm trying to change and grow. Spring is a time for self evaluation and new beginnings. Some of my old bad habits are merely ways I have viewed my self negatively. I have experienced fear and guilt around my own cross-dressing. This limited me. It took me years to break that "bad habit."

Don't limit your concept of yourself. Discard that old negative self-image and feel the freedom of self-acceptance.

*Love to you all,
Kim Christy*

Letters to the Editor

If you wish to write to Kim and possibly have your correspondence published, please address it to Kim Christy, C/O FEMALE MIMICS INTERNATIONAL, P.O. BOX 1622, Studio City, CA 91604.

Dear Kim,

I adore your magazine and you. I have been dressing in girls' clothes for years but I'm not pretty enough to go out or even send pictures.

I especially like your section on "Letters to the Editor" where pretty girls send pictures and tell their stories. Some of them are just unbelievable and are as beautiful as any real girls I've ever seen.

I just loved your last issue with the page on Michelle. She's as lovely as a doll, so feminine and cute. I can't get enough of looking at her. Is there any chance of showing more pictures of her in a future issue? I'm sure some of your many other readers would enjoy seeing more of her too. I loved her story.

Please keep up the great work with your magazine. Many of us depend on it.

Yours truly,
Joyce

Dear Kim,

When I saw my pictures in your recent magazine, Volume 13, Number 4, I couldn't believe my eyes. I can't express my appreciation for allowing me to be a women for all the world to see. I'm sure you know how I feel, and for that I'd love to thank you personally—it was the thrill of my life.

Love always,
Michelle

Dear Sir or Madam:

I've been buying your magazine for about a year now and I think the Female Impersonators you choose for your covers are fantastic. That's why I'm writing to you, I was really hoping that maybe you'd consider me as one of your Cover Girls, or maybe allow my photographs to be used for your magazine. I'm not sure who'll read this letter first, but I pray it falls into the right hands.

I'm not sure how you find and choose your Cover Girls, and this is an unusual way for me to apply to your magazine.

However, I thought my chances would be better if I wrote in and sent some recent photographs of me. I'm sure many beautiful girls apply for your magazine, but maybe you'll consider this "Little Hometown Girl."

I'm very interested in being in your magazine and I don't know what to say to convince you of it, but I guess it all boils down to one thing, if you like me, you like me, if not "Better luck next time." Right? I seriously hope you'll really look at my photos—not just glance at them and send them back. If you decide against me please return the photos to me, I have enclosed a self addressed stamped envelope. Thank you for the attention to this letter.

Sincerely yours,
Dannette De La Rose

Trained by Aunty

She slyly moved her panties so that the crotch-band was right under his nose, and then gently poked the damp fabric right in between his lips.

“There, Paulie can suck on Aunty’s knickers now while he sun bathes. Good boy, take deep breaths, and aha . . . now he is being a REALLY good pet; he is chewing on aunty’s crotch-piece. You are WEARING a pair of my knickers, pet, and you are TASTING a pair as well. Do they taste and smell good to you. Paulie?”

Tell aunty you love her panties, her nice, pretty, cunty panties.”

She stroked his forehead while she whispered her coaxing words to him. “Isn’t it your favorite taste, Paulie, my knickers that I have just taken off so that they are still warm and very strong smelling? They taste good too, eh? You adores aunty’s panties, don’t you?”

She slid her other hand under his reclining body, insinuating her fingers under his trunks so that she could grip his thickening stalk through the nylon panties. Slowly, so slowly, she masturbated him, finding that the more aroused his penis became the more avidly he sucked on the pantie-band, now well into his mouth.

It was true what this wonderful woman said. This odor WAS the most delightful smell he knew; the taste of the knicker-band WAS his favorite flavor of any food he had ever known. Her hand wanked him a little faster, but not enough to force him to an orgasm, and now she slid her other hand down his back, inside his trunks to caress his bottom cheeks through the nylon panties. He loved having her rubbing his cock and caressing his backside at the same time, both massages of course being THROUGH the nylon material so that her hand did not make contact with his bare flesh.

"You lay perfectly still, my pet," she whispered, "and let aunty do all the movements for you. You're wearing a pretty pair of panties and it is only natural you should feel very excited. You lay there, enjoy yourself and let aunty make you happy and very contented. Suck on the lovely knickers, my pet, suck hard and get all my juices from the material into your throat. Taste good, eh? Suck harder, good, now I am going to make you spunk, my little pet. Your cockie is nice and hard, and I know you are going to let me have a good load in the knickers to show me what a big boy you are. There, my pet, you are getting harder, you are sucking faster on my knickers. Soon, ver soon Paulie is going to cum for aunty. He wants nothing more than to show aunty how much he can cream for her. Come on, my pet . . . cum . . . cum . . . cum for aunty."

Paul felt himself building up for his second great orgasm that morning. Normally he never played with himself more than once a day and seldom actually rubbed to a finish more than every two days, but this woman seemed to be able to bring him off where and when she wanted . . . and as many times as she wanted too!

He felt totally under her control, he didn't mind. In fact he wanted to ALWAYS be under her control and do whatever she told him. He could not lie very still, not under such stimulation from her hands on his penis and bottom crease. He writhed, he wriggled from side to side, and his loins lifted and dropped in the most exciting fashion as he continued to bring him inevitably towards a fantastic ejaculation of his seed.

“You are feeding on Auntie's panties!”

"Just think of the lovely panties, my darling, lovely soft nylon knickers in your mouth, over your cock and bottom. You are wearing aunty's knickers and you are feeding on them, too." She lowered her face so that she spoke more intimately into his ear. "You love feeding on aunty's panties, don't you, Paulie pet? YOU ARE . . . FEEDING . . . ON . . . AUNTY'S . . . PANTIES!"

Her phrases excited him more and more until he knew he must cum . . . nothing could stop him . . . and even though he had cum once this morning he was ready and anxious to explode again under her expert manipulations.

Just a few long, steady rubs of her gripping fingers on his stalk and he was shooting his load yet again, and as he did so he sucked greedily on the very wet crotch-piece of her knickers which he had well into his mouth.

When his plse had slackened somewhat, he raised himself to kiss Sarah and thank her profusely for giving him such a lovely climax. She then made him bend over slightly so that she could clean him up wonderfully with paper tissue. So plentiful was his spend she had to use four tissues in all before most of the thick cream had been cleansed from the panties.

Sarah smiled at him. His handsome face was still flushed. "Kneel up, Paulie my pet," she told him as she stood up; "that's good, kneel right in front of me."

She looked down at him in his servile position at her feet, and then, quickly looking all around to make sure the beach was still deserted, she pulled aside the gusset of her swimming costume and used her other hand to bring his head forward so that it was now in between her thighs. Paul detected the musky aroma at once that had been produced that morning and happily and greedily started tonguing and sucking on her intimate flesh.

Her orphan protege had learned well. "Lovely, my darling . . . lovely," she moaned softly as she moved his head backwards and forwards in time with her gyrating hips. It was not long before she felt her own orgasm getting near, and giving a deep groan and a sudden wild arching of her womanly loins, she felt her inner juices being released. She held his face hard to her fleshy core. "Feed on me, my pet," she groaned. "You fed on aunty's knickers, now feed off her body. My juices are so good for you, my sweet Paulie. There's a good lad, swallow it all down."

Eventually she pushed his face from her and let the swimming gusset snap back into position. SHE lay on the beach with him, embracing and cuddling him to her ample body. "You are so good for aunty," she told him, "and aunty is so good for you too, my pet. Paulie needs aunty just as much as she needs him."

They were happy to lie close for over an hour. She frequently whispered sweet nothings to him. "You like giving me a nice kiss down there between my legs, don't you Paulie? And you love me playing with you through nylon panties, eh? It is a lovely arrangement isn't it, my love?"

"Oh, yes, yes aunty. Such a wonderful arrangement," he echoed. "I hope it can go on forever."

He was so naive, sweet bleary-eyed boy. she thought to herself. Go on forever indeed! He still had a great deal to learn from her, a great deal still to do to her, and for her.

“Lie down and sun yourself,” she told him. “We can have a sleep; we will both sleep well after such a lovely session together. Lie on your tummy again, that’s right, close to me so that I can slide my hand inside your trunks and hold your cockie. It is so small now, isn’t it, my darling, and the knickers are still damp from your lovely spunk even though I tried to clean it all awy. You DID cum a lot for aunty, didn’t you?”

The slept for quite some time. The sun was warm, and they were satisfied and exhausted. Later, after dressing and returning home, they enjoyed a meal, and Paul felt happy with his new world.

“You DO look happy and contented, Paulie,” she laughed as they settled back to digest their food.

“Yes, and it is all due to you, dearest aunty,” he replied. “I will be grateful to you forevermore.”

In the lounge they sat on the deep sofa. “It is very warm in here darling,” she muttered as she slipped out of her blouse and slacks, enjoying the way he sat oggling her. “You too, silly boy,” she chuckled; “don’t just sit there and watch me undressing.”

Paul immediately snapped out of it, and started to take off his tie and shirt and then his trousers so that all he had on was the pale blue nylon panties he had worn all day. He enjoyed having her watch him as he paraded in front of her.

“Very nice, very nice, young man, very nice indeed, a very pretty sight for aunty. Your body is so hairless for a male, Paulie, and your legs look smooth and so shapely and in those pretty knickers you are a delight to look at. Come closer to me, Paulie dear.”

She gently caressed his bottom through the thin nylon panties. He had not developed very much muscle yet in his buttock area and the feminine underwear suited him. He was standing close enough to her for her to be able to stroke the front of his knickers at the same time she continued to fondle his bottom, and

although he had already been “spunked” twice that day he was getting semi-hard, which delighted her very much.

“Your little cockie is rearing up again, my pet,” she smiled at him; “it is because I am feeling it and your pretty bottom through nylon panties and also it is because you are looking at my womanly body, isn’t it? I am quite a large woman, aren’t I, and yet I am very attractive to you. You like seeing me in my pale lilac panties and a bra to match, don’t you, Paulie? I know what you want to do, Paulie; don’t be shy with aunty. Feel my titties if you really want to; they are nice and large aren’t they, and very fleshy but they are quite firm too. You feel, yes, go on, Paulie, feel my breasts.”

Timidly he reached out and touched her brassiered globes and trembled slightly as he and Sarah fondled one another for several wonderful breath-taking minutes before she confessed she wanted to see the film on the television that evening as it was a sexy one. They settled down on the deep cushioned sofa after she had switched on the set but while they were waiting for the set to warm up she told Paul to kneel down at her feet. She parted her legs and rested his head on her crotch, pressing his face firmly in to herself.

Paul adored kneeling before his beloved mistress and resting his head on her crotch, now covered by her smooth delicate lilac nylon panties. As soon as the film started, the orphaned youth felt his mentor gently rocking her hips so that her pantied crotch moved against his face. Her sickly-sweet musky feminine scent was pervading his nostrils and his very mind itself. It was as if his face BELONGED BETWEEN HER LOVELY THIGHS!

She was running her fingers through his hair and murmuring encouraging phrases to him “to be good to aunty.” When the exciting part of the sexy film was shown Sarah gyrated her body more furiously against his face and she could not resist the temptation to pull one side the crotch-band of her dainty knickers so that she could press his face to her fast-moistening cunt. Paul at once responded, just as she knew he would. His mouth opened, his tongue probed and just as eagerly as on previous occasions, he began to feast on her juiciness.

He licked, he sucked, he gulped. As though he could never get enough of her feminine moistures, he lathered her flesh with tongue and lips. This was a task he was rapidly getting to be an expert at, and Paul was as greedy to take her juice as she was to give it to him.

It was only natural that his penis began to swell into hardness again. The feel of gism, dry though it was, and the smoothness of the nylon panties against his glans was more than enough to make him yearn for satisfaction again. To have cum twice in a day was amazing to him, but to have this heavy feeling of wanting to cum again was something he would not have believed if he had not been experiencing it himself. He had to believe it, for his cock was getting harder, longer, more vibrant all the time as he wriggled in between her thighs and pressed his face to her welcoming, wet, mushy gash.

He realized that he had to give his mistress the satisfaction she needed before he might expect her to take care of him. He was aware he was down there with his face to her lovely cunt for a special reason, and he would do his very best to prove to her his ardent gratitude for bringing him home with her on every possible weekend.

It looked as if it was going to be a long, but exciting evening, this being in front of the television with a difference. He didn't want to watch the screen; he only wanted to have his face pressed high up between her lovely thighs, giving her this special treatment, and he knew that at the end of the evening when he had done everything to her that she wanted, she would take care of his needs too. Oh, how he longed for her hands to bring him off again inside the soft smooth nylon panties that caressed his rigid cock, but he knew he had to be patient. He was happy to wait, he knew his satisfaction would be worth waiting for.

Sarah wanted to achieve a climax every time there was a particularly sexy or exciting scene on the screen. She guided his head so that he brought his young tongue to her clitoris on these occasions, and he quickly learned how to lick and suck at the little bud. He discovered, to his everlasting joy, that when he sucked hard on that little gristle she juiced in a very few moments. Her cunt was always wet, but when she had orgasm he could taste the extra fluid, so much wetter, so much more acidic, so much more wonderful to swallow for it had more taste to it.

After each climax she would unclamp her thighs from his head to allow him breathing space for a little while. She stroked his hair and forehead lovingly as she whispered her thanks to him for making her feel so happy. He was amazed at the number of times she was able to cum. Would her lovely womanly, fleshy quim ever run dry? He hoped not.

He was so happy to be wearing a pair of her very own panties, he was delighted to be able to serve her in this fashion; she had shown him so much love, there was nothing he would not be willing to do for her.

By the time the film ended, Sarah lay back completely exhausted and satisfied after countless orgasms, some of which had been very powerful indeed.

“Oh, my darling Paulie,” she managed to mutter as she lay back trying to regain her breath from the last expulsion of her juice into his swallowing gullet. “You have made aunty so happy, so wonderfully happy, my pet. Turn off the television please and pour us some long, refreshing drinks.”

Like a little maid, he moved quickly to obey her. After switching off the set, he poured the drinks and returned to the sofa where she waited for him, her face still red from her exertions and beads of perspiration showing on her forehead and chin. She saw he was now nearly fully aroused; the front of his knickers were stretched by his penis shaft. The silky material further agitated his cock when he walked across the room until it was fully aroused.

They quickly finished their drinks and after putting down their nearly empty glasses Sarah reached down and grasped his nylon-encased penis shaft.

“My lovely darling. You have been hard for so long, haven't you? You have given me an evening of real pleasure I shall never forget. You will have a lovely reward tonight, my pet, you just wait and see.”

He was a little disappointed when she got up from the sofa and went into her bedroom. He had hoped she would fetch him off right there and then, but she had very different ideas for tonight.

In her bedroom she quickly changed from her bra and panties and slipped on a diaphanous black nightie and matching panties and then returned to the lounge.

Paul gave an audible gasp when he caught sight of her in her changed attire, and his cock throbbed inside his panties. Sarah told him to stand up and when she stood close to him her right hand descended to his pantie-front and her fingers gripped his shaft. Slowly she pulled him towards her bedroom by his prick and he loved being under her control in this way.

“Tonight,” she smiled at him, “you are going to sleep in aunty's bed, in MY bed, my darling, with me. It is your reward for being so good to aunty during the film this evening. You had your face to my twat for a long time and I think you showed you really love serving aunty in that way.”

Join Linda Lee in Europe as she attends the 8th International Symposium on Gender Dysphoria of the Harry Benjamin Association.

Linda Lee's Pages

Here we are again for this issue's exciting adventure as Linda Lee's train rolls through the French countryside toward Bordeaux and the 8th International Symposium on Gender Dysphoria.

With me on this part of the trip, as you may recall from last time, was Pastor Joseph Douce, founder of the Centre du Christ Libérateur, a Paris-based organization for sexual minorities, which includes a large TV/TS contingent.

We talked a bit as we travelled, about what to expect at the conference. We'd both seen the abstracts of the scheduled presentations, but these were brief enough that they left room for speculation.

Well, we would know soon for just after 6:00 p.m. we arrived in Bordeaux.

We caught a bus which dropped us near the hotel that Pastor Douce and his friend Dr. Gooren had arranged for us.

It was a pleasant place, quiet, family run, with a garden, but it did seem rather out of the way. But we decided to get settled for now and worry about that later.

We met Dr. Gooren and his friend Ferry. They had driven down from the Netherlands. Dr. Gooren is an endocrinologist at University of Amsterdam, and Ferry works in The Hague which is the political capital of the Netherlands and home of some important international organizations like the World Court.

Dr. Gooren was knowledgeable on the subject of transsexuality. Since the surgery is still illegal in France, most French transsexuals wind up having their surgery either in the Netherlands or in Belgium. So, apart from the Dutch transsexuals he'd encountered, Dr. Gooren had experience with some of these people as well.

Both Dr. Gooren and Ferry spoke excellent English which was a good thing as, if my French was extremely limited, my Dutch was non-existent.

After settling into our rooms, we went out to explore the city a little. Since Dr. Gooren had driven in, we all used his car which was very much handier than trying to make do with public transportation at night in an unfamiliar city.

I can't locate, at the moment, the name of the restaurant we found, either among my notes, or with the many odds and ends of brochures, receipts, maps, and other scraps and bits from the trip. I do remember reading on their literature that the restaurant is one of the oldest, or perhaps the oldest, still in operation in that city which dates from before the Romans conquered the known world.

What I do remember clearly was the striking decor. The interior of the restaurant was decorated to resemble a grotto, with greenery, rocks, and a "waterfall." It was also cleverly made to appear much larger than it really was by strategic use of mirrors.

The food was very good, the prices reasonable, and the company pleasant. All in all it was a very nice beginning to my stay in the city.

However, as we noted both driving into downtown and back, our hotel was well away from the center of the city, and a considerable distance from the campus where the Symposium was to be held.

By the time we got back from supper, though, it was far too late to do anything about it, so we retired to our rooms and, if the others were as tired as I was, all slept very soundly indeed.

The next morning was clear and bright, though a night rain had left a necklace of raindrops that sparkled over the flowers.

Pastor Douce and Dr. Gooren had inquired at the desk and discovered that the same people who had this hotel had another much closer to the center of the city, the "Hotel Touring." We made arrangements to transfer there, collected our luggage, and headed on.

"It was, in many ways, like old home week."

I have to confess that, as comfortable and pleasant as the second hotel was I missed the garden and the sort of "family" atmosphere of the first one.

But I didn't have too much time to dwell on it, for now I was off to the Symposium itself.

The actual meeting place was on the University of Bordeaux campus.

The site was a fair distance from the center of the city, and rather than the medieval buildings one might expect in a city that dates back to antiquity, the campus was shiny and modern with lots of aluminum and glass.

The lecture hall, where the presentations were given, might have been in a lecture hall in any university anywhere. A raised platform at the front for the speakers; a screen for showing slides or other visual materials, a very good sound system, and raked seating on benches which were plain wood and moderately uncomfortable, "Probably so the students won't fall asleep . . ." said Susan Huxfort, one of my neighbors in the first row, and I figured she ought to know since she'd been a teacher.

The first hustle and bustle of registration was going on and it was fun since the group was, in many ways, like old home week.

Here, 6000 miles from the Bay Area, were friends from Palo Alto, Redwood City, San Francisco, and San Jose, all of whom live an hour or less from my home, but most of whom I hadn't seen in a long time, some not for years.

Here too were people I'd heard of but never met: Tommye Kelly from Denver who was a friend of friends of mine, and therapist to another friend, Dr. Stanley Biber also from Colorado who has done, perhaps, more reassignment surgeries than anyone else in the world, Dr. Donald Laub, chief surgeon of the Stanford Program who I'd never met even though I loved in Palo Alto for several years, and a surprise addition to the program, Dr. John Money who has written or co-authored several of the most important books on the subject of gender.

There were lots of other people I'd heard of, and many more I hadn't encountered yet.

At one-thirty registration officially ended and the Symposium was called to order by Dr. Laub of Stanford who was President of the Harry Benjamin International Gender Dysphoria Association, Inc. (hereafter abbreviated H.B.I.G.D.A.)

This was brief and afterward we moved to another room for a short reception where we were welcomed by an official of the University of Bordeaux. Here we also met our host, Dr. Marc Bourgeois of the University.

After this interlude we reconvened in the lecture hall to continue the presentations.

Dr. Paul Walker, founding president of the H.B.I.G.D.A. gave the keynote address.

He touched on many important points, among the most memorable to me being the need for gender programs to stop feeling that they have to create (or at any rate only accept those male-to-female TSs who will become) "pom-pom girls," to borrow Dr. Walker's very apt phrase. He also mentioned a somewhat related concern, the need to realize that patients' sexuality or sexual preference and their gender identity are two separate issues which may or may not agree in the "normal" way.

After these "general" talks, the program began to get very specific. The next three papers dealt with female-to-male reassignment surgery.

The first was from a group of surgeons from Virginia, the second from a group of surgeons from Missouri, and the third from Dr. Laub and some of the other doctors from the Stanford program which has been putting a great deal of effort into finding better techniques for female-male surgery since it was an area where results often fall short of what could be wished for.

I don't plan to go into detail on any of these highly technical presentations. For one thing, it would only be of interest to a relatively small number of people and, for another, I don't have the knowledge to boil the highly complex medical terminology down enough to be understandable.

The final two presentations of the afternoon were more general in nature, forming a brief history of the modern study of transsexuality from the surgical aspect (Dr. Milton Edgerton, incoming president of the H.B.I.G.D.A.), and the psychiatric aspect (Dr. Ira Pauley).

This concluded presentations for the day and we went on from the University to our first strictly social event, a reception on behalf of the Mayor of Bordeaux.

A bus collected us and we travelled back downtown to an imposing building (probably 18th Century since most of the existing civic architecture seems to date from that period) which I understood to be the "official" residence of the mayor.

If the exterior was imposing, the interior was breath-taking.

Huge mirrors, flower arrangements taller than a six-year-old, white and gilt paneling, marble mantelpieces, beautiful elaborate carpets, and a model of a three-masted sailing ship that must have measured three feet long.

We were welcomed by a deputy of the mayor (who was out of the city) and told what an honor they felt it was that we chose to have our meeting in Bordeaux. We were then treated to the ubiquitous French wines. I'm not much of a wine drinker, but even I could appreciate the quality of what they served.

"The deputy mayor of Bordeaux was honored to have us meet there."

There was a short break after this and then we reconvened at the Hotel du Vin (or possibly the Maison du Vin, I never was quite sure . . .) for yet another wine and cheese tasting, this time a more commercial proposition as one could buy any of the wines or cheeses we liked.

The setting for this was a wine cellar which had been converted into a place for such events.

It was at this gathering I really began to meet some of the symposium members I hadn't met before.

These included fascinating people like Alice Purnell from England who works with S.H.A.F.T. (Self-Help Association For Transsexuals), and Tina Wheeler who co-authored the paper I was most interested in hearing.

Once again some of the wines were very good though they did what seemed to me an odd thing and had the dessert wines sampled first.

I had already had, that afternoon, more wine than I usually drink in six months, and what with not having much to eat that day, I was beginning to feel a bit light-headed, a condition aggravated by the large number of people, the relatively small space they were crowded into, the heat and the long day. Luckily I found a spot to sit down near Alice and soon we were happily discussing the problems of transsexuals in Britain.

Luckily too, Alice had seen

FEMALE MIMICS, so it gave us a bit of common ground apart, of course, from just being two nice people.

After an hour or so, the group started to break up. The evening had been warm and humid and the reason became apparent as we left the wine cellar and trudged up to street level, for there was a fairly rousing thunderstorm going on.

Luckily I was able to get a ride to near my hotel with some of the people who had a car.

As we drove along through the rain I noticed, across the wide boulevard, a small hamburger place, clearly a sort of French "McDonald's." (There are a couple of actual "McDonald's" in Paris but luckily I had missed them . . .) This place, though, was to figure in a small adventure I had the next evening.

Once back at the hotel I collapsed gratefully into bed, read a bit on LAND OF LAUGHS, a strange, but very good book by Johnathon Carrol, and fell asleep.

The next morning's presentations were somewhat more interesting for me than the papers on surgery the previous day. After all, even if I decide on surgery, which seems highly problematic at this point, it wouldn't be female-to-male anyway!

But Saturday morning's papers were on "Theoretical and Diagnostic Considerations." The first talk was by Aaron Billowitz on "Transsexualism and Schizophrenia" and pointed up the necessity of being careful to distinguish between the two phenomena, as the presentation made clear, is not a simple task.

The next scheduled speaker was to have been Anne Bolin from Denver, but she was unable to attend. What might have been a disappointment became a treat, though, when her spot was taken by Dr. John Money with an absolutely fascinating talk that touched not on-

The Bad & The Blonde

Our favorite new blonde-about-town (forgive us K.C.) is the fabulous Frankie. She's part Jessica Lange and part Lana Turner. But she says she's mostly Faye Dunaway. We thought she'd make the perfect "cover-girl" for our "Blonde Issue."

“When I was very little, my hair was practically white. The other children thought I was from outer space. My mother is very blonde. She looks like Carol Baker in ‘Harlow.’”

One moment Frankie is the golden sex-goddess, the next she's that dirty little girl coaxing you to pull down your under pants and "show it to me."

FRANKIE

We asked Frankie about career. "A 'Jerry Hall'," she replied. "Do you mean a model?" we further pressed. "No," she said, "A 'Jerry Hall'."

“Mostly what I like to do is be me. You know, change clothes, go out, smoke, put on more eye make-up, and date fabulously wealthy people who’ll treat me like a fashion accessory.”

ly on transsexuality in human beings, but on cross-gender behavior in other areas of the animal kingdom, a subject that seems so often neglected, considering the implications of some of the material Dr. Money presented. I must admit, too, that I especially appreciated Dr. Money's wry and off-hand sense of humor and I felt very lucky indeed to have had the chance to meet and hear him.

The next paper, presented by Dr. Lawrence Martin concerned "Transsexualism and Homosexuality in a Monozygotic Twin Pair." This was interesting to me because I have known a couple of sets of twins in which both have been transsexual. These occurrences, which don't appear terribly rare considering the incidence of the phenomenon in the population as a whole, seem to me to bolster the idea that there is a physical factor (as well as psychological factors) at work in the development of cross-gender identification.

Of the remaining papers that morning, the most interesting to me was Dr. Stephen Levine of Cleveland on "Psychiatric Diagnosis among Gender Patients; The Value of Perceiving Gender Dysphoria as a Form of Mental Illness." This was a closely reasoned, sophisticated paper and I disagreed with it almost completely. Certainly I thought Dr. Levine was right in suggesting that the patients he described have the problems he enumerated, but I can't agree that transsexuals in general are the sorts of people he described as his patients.

After the morning's papers came lunch, provided by the university. I'm pleased to report that we have a world-wide phenomenon demonstrated here. School cafeteria food is bad wherever you encounter it. In this case the main offender was a piece of ham so salty that I should never have to worry about heat stroke as long as I live.

"Those who have the most day-to-day contact are the best to research the situation."

The afternoon was devoted to papers on male-to-female surgical techniques.

Dr. Rudolphe Meyer was scheduled to give the first talk, but was delayed until Monday and his time was given over to the business meeting which I didn't attend since I wasn't a member of the H.B.I.G.D.A. (as opposed to a member of the Symposium).

With Dr. Meyer delayed, the first two papers of the afternoon came from Dr. Biber and Dr. Laub. These were interesting to me especially as I'd just had one good friend go through surgery with Dr. Biber and another with Dr. Laub, and this was a chance to see and compare the two techniques.

Actually Dr. Biber presented two papers this afternoon, one on his surgical technique and another on salvage procedures developed, it is sad to relate, largely when people have come to him with bad results of surgery obtained from other sources.

Next was the only paper primarily concerned with hormone therapy. Another was scheduled, but the presenter was unable to attend. The one we heard was developed by researchers at Stanford and ably presented by Judy Van Maasdam, one of the administrators of the program.

The final paper of the afternoon was presented by Dr. Laub. (If it seems that a relatively few people present a relatively large number of papers, bear in mind that those who have the most day-to-day contact with the phenomenon are going to be in the best position to research the situation . . .) This paper primarily was concerned with the safety of gender reassignment surgery.

In some ways this paper was a rebuttal to another recent study which attempted to show an unusually high rate of complications in gender surgery. This, in turn, has caused a problem because third-party insurance carriers, by citing this one study and ignoring all the previous studies that showed no such findings, have been managing to claim that gender surgery is "experimental" and therefore not subject to coverage under their policies. Indeed, I understand there are only two insurance companies that don't exclude gender surgery at this point.

After Dr. Laub's presentation, the meeting ended. This was the only evening when we were really on our own, since the banquet would be the following evening and the Symposium would end at mid-day the day after that.

Still rather overwhelmed from lunch, I decided to try and find the little hamburger place I'd seen the night before.

Pastor Douce, Dr. Gooren, and I were picked up by Ferry, and driven back to the hotel. I rested a bit then went downstairs. I met Pastor Douce there. He too was headed out for supper. We chatted a bit then went our separate ways.

I had spotted a lingerie shop on Place Tourny, a plaza at the intersection of four major streets near our hotel . . . after my disappointment in Paris, I was determined to find at least one piece of lingerie as a souvenir, and I don't mean something made in the U.S.A. either . . .

I looked through the shop, but didn't see anything I especially liked. I crossed the Plaza and started walking the other way when I spotted a familiar figure. It was Pastor Douce. We chatted a bit then went our separate ways.

Since I had only a vague idea of where the hamburger place was, I allowed myself to wander. I knew it was somewhere near the Maison du Vin (or was it the Hotel du Vin) but I'd only seen it at night when it was raining and this evening it was clear, beautiful, and still quite light.

After a while I found myself in a large public square. A circus had been set up and was playing there. (Even so it only occupied one corner of square which will give you an idea of just how large this open space was . . .) As I got closer I saw the name, Cirque Pinder. It stirred a vague memory. Perhaps I'd come across it in the little I'd read about circus, or possibly I'd read their name in connection with a magician since many continental circuses have used magic acts.

I was tempted, but decided I was just too tired to manage to take in the circus, and simply wanted to eat then go back to the hotel.

As I turned and walked back toward the business area I spotted a familiar figure. It was Pastor Douce. We chatted a bit then went our separate ways.

Yet again I wandered, but finally I spotted the place about fifteen minutes later. I crossed the broad boulevard, entered the shop, and got in line at the front counter (just like "McDonald's" . . .).

There was something vaguely familiar about the person in front of me in line. He turned. It was Pastor Douce. We stared at each other for a second then laughed and found a table. Clearly the fates had ordained that we should have supper together.

After the meal (just like "McDonald's") we really did go our separate ways, since I headed back for Place Tourny and Pastor Douce stayed behind.

The next day held most of our special events including the banquet. Since I wasn't sure I'd be able to get back to the hotel to change, I wore my dressiest outfit. In some ways this turned out to be a good thing, in other ways not, as I'll explain next time.

"Lee Grant Productions is putting together a cable show about TVs and TSs."

That's about all the room I have this time for my trip report. I'll finish next time. I'd go on, but I want to talk about a couple of the presentations in some detail, and our space is limited, especially if I want to discuss anything besides the trip.

I haven't done anything too much out of the ordinary since my last column. The usual speaking and so on, but nothing really noteworthy.

Last week one of the local organizations for cross-dressers held a "1940's Night Party." So far that's not much of a news event, but what made it unusual was that it was covered by Lee Grant Productions for a show they are putting together about TVs and TSs which is aimed for cable. I've heard good things about the project and am looking forward to seeing the program when it's finished.

Personally, my biggest news at the moment is that there's a chance (just a chance, mind you . . .) that I'll turn up on the Playboy Channel on a program called WOMEN AND SEX as part of a segment they are considering on transsexuals.

If all this happens, and I'm able to do it, I'll be sure and keep you posted. F.M.I #22 should reach the stores before the show airs, so I'd hope people could catch it.

Unfortunately, if I do the show, it will probably be with my old original-issue nose. I haven't been able to do anything further about plastic surgery. I'd anticipated some money from the sale of a book collection, but that hasn't happened yet, so things are rather thin at the moment, certainly too much so to anticipate urban renewal in the nose area. If this changes, you'll know first.

Before I sign off, I want to give addresses for the organizations I encountered on my trip. These were:

S.H.A.F.T.
46 Lidell Way
South Ascot
Berkshire SL5 94X
ENGLAND

F.A.C.T.
c/o GenderServe
P.O. Box 291, Station A
Hamilton
Ontario
Canada L8N 3C8

and, again,

Centre du Christ Libérateur
3 Bis Rue Clairaut
75017 Paris
FRANCE

Judging by the representatives I met, I'd suspect that these organizations could be of considerable value to people in the areas they serve.

Finally, I understand that "The Linda Lee Album" which for a long time was given away with my tape, "A Conversation With Linda Lee" as a free bonus is no longer available. Some of the negatives had almost been worn out, in the sense of fading or losing color balance and I didn't want them destroyed altogether (they really were my favorites . . .)

So . . . you can't get the pictures anymore, but you still can get the tape and I suggest you do (but then I'm prejudiced that way . . .). It's still $9.95 and a bargain even if I say so as shouldn't.

Order it from:

OZMA PRODUCTIONS
P.O. Box 23001
Oakland
California 94623

and add $1.00 for postage and handling, and appropriate sales tax if you live in California.

That's all there's room for. Thank you for reading and I'll look forward to next time.

Our lives are full of legend and myth about "hair of gold." Think of the phrases, "Blonde Venus." "Is it true Blondes have more fun?" "If I've one life to live let me live it as a Blonde." Do Blondes have that something special?

B L O N D I E

BLONDE

Marilyn started out as a dish water blonde. She became increasingly blonde until the 60's when like a white star in the heavens she fizzled and the light went out. Jayne Mansfield, too, was not a natural blonde. In fact she's one of the most unnatural blondes we can think of.

BLONDE

Blonde has been a symbol through the centuries. Ancient goddesses were imagined to be blonde. Wagner's metal breast-plated fraulines sported blonde braids. Blonde hair was the Aryan Nazi ideal. Today's gods and goddesses are Billy Idol, Sting, Blondie, Goldie Hawn, Meryl Streep (esp. in "Still of the Night") to mention a few.
